

JISC Regional Support Centre for Yorkshire & Humber E-Learning Conference 2010

Call for Contributions

The JISC RSC YH E-Learning Conference 2010 is focused on Active Learning.

We are seeking contributions for interactive workshops that will enable our providers (from HE, FE, Work Based Learning, Adult & Community Learning, Sixth Form Colleges and Specialist Colleges) to learn practical, transferable hands-on skills through the use of technology and challenge their approach to teaching, training and learning.

Contributors to the conference will be able to enthusiastically deliver an Active Learning 'How To' workshop with the use of technology. The workshops will focus on 'learning by doing'.

We are looking for examples of the innovative use of technology in the following areas:

- Communication
- Collaboration
- Design for learning
- Creativity
- Widening participation
- Multimedia
- Games & Virtual Worlds
- Work-based Learning
- Problem solving
- Online learning
- Assessment
- Simulations

All contributions should focus on the conference theme of Active & Interactive Learning. You will need to:

- Outline a description of your workshop (max 500 words)
- Specify either a 45-minute or 60-minute slot
- State what delegates will learn and how they will use what they have learned
- State equipment you will require

Submit your proposal online via the link at <http://www.rsc-yh.ac.uk/conference>

DEADLINE EXTENDED TO FRIDAY 9TH APRIL 2010
