

“my central knowledge base ... the trusted specialists...”

“always there when I need them...”

“..the RSC provides a singular point of contact and its staff always keep us aware of what’s going on... also very proactive in organising regional discussions looking at issues that affect us all...”

“The RSC provided valuable input into our recent network review process...”

“They provide a level of additional professional support which is now vital to the operation of our HEI...”

“The RSC continue to provide an extremely important service very well...”

“...provide an important source of digested information, and they facilitate valuable links with external institutions...”

“The RSC performs a vital service for us...”

“Moodle user group meetings are excellent!”

“I find RSC services and information valuable and timely, without being intrusive or time consuming. There is a genuine willingness to share and to enable sharing...”